

Book of Quantum Value	New Personal Injuries Guidelines Value
Minor neck whiplash/soft tissue injuries: Up to €15,700 where there has been a substantial recovery. Up to €19,400 where a full recovery is expected.	Minor neck whiplash/soft tissue injuries: From €500–€12,000, depending how long it takes, on a range from less than six months up to two years to make a substantial recovery.
Minor back injuries: Up to €14,800 for substantially recovered soft tissue sprain type back injuries of the type incurred in motor vehicle accidents or high impact slips/trips/falls. Up to €18,400 for minor soft tissue back injuries where a full recovery is expected. From €21,400 – €34,000 for moderate soft tissue injuries where recovery has been protracted	Minor back injuries: From €500–€20,000 for back injuries where surgery is not necessary. Amount depends on how long it takes, over a period of some months to five years, to make a substantial recovery. Where a recovery occurs within six months, the award range is from €500–€3,000.
Minor wrist injuries Up to €27,800 for soft tissue wrist sprains where a full recovery within a few months is the most common outcome.	Minor wrist injuries €500–€3,000 when there is substantial recovery without surgery within six months; €3,000–10,000 for substantial recovery between six months and two years; €10,000–€18,000 for substantial recovery within two to five years.
Injury or fracture of little finger Up to €16,600 for simple non-displaced injury that has substantially recovered	Injury or fracture of little finger €500–€7,500 for a little finger injury where grip has remained impaired
Minor leg injuries: eg simple fracture of femur with no other damage €27,700–€59,100	Minor leg injuries: eg simple fracture of femur with no other damage €12,000–€20,000
Eye: minor but permanent impaired vision in one eye €22,500 – €45,400	Eye: minor but permanent impaired vision in one eye €15,000–€45,000
Teeth: Loss of one tooth €10,300–€12,700 for loss of one tooth. €7,500–€10,300 for a broken tooth.	Teeth: Loss of one tooth €3,500–€8,500 for one front tooth. €1,500–€3,000 for one back tooth.
Soft tissue shoulder injury up to €33,500	Soft tissue shoulder injury from €500–€12,000 depending how long it took to make a substantial recovery over a period up to two years.
Moderate shoulder injuries eg frozen shoulder persisting for some years from €22,000–€60,000 for moderate sprains caused by a partial tear and where full recovery is expected. From €33,000 – €70,600 for moderate injuries requiring join manipulation, taking longer to recovery with extensive treatment but will a full recovery expected.	Moderate shoulder injuries eg frozen shoulder persisting for some years €18,000-35,000
Simple undisplaced nose fracture with full recovery: €18,000–€22,100	Simple undisplaced nose fracture with full recovery: €500–€3,000
Minor brain damage or head injury: Up to €21,800 for concussion type injury where recovery results in most cases. €34,700–€60,200 for skull fracture with no loss of consciousness/minor head injuries which result in little or any disability.	Minor brain damage or head injury: €500–€3,000 where there is substantial recovery within six months and €12,000–€25,000 where is substantial recovery in two to five years. Affecting factors include the severity of initial injury and pain.
Catastrophic injuries: quadriplegia and paraplegia and injuries resulting in shortened life expectancy, eg undiagnosed cancers or terminal illness contracted through workplace negligence. Maximum general damages of €500,000	Catastrophic injuries: quadriplegia and paraplegia and injuries resulting in shortened life expectancy, eg undiagnosed cancers or terminal illness contracted through workplace negligence. Maximum general damages of €550,000